

Please allow Indiana to keep the telephone privacy act. I have enjoyed having peaceful evenings at home. It seemed that as soon as we sat down for dinner a telemarketer would call. They will not take no for an answer and continue talking. We would actually lay the phone down, sooner or later they realized we were not there, if you hang up ththey just call back!!! Please let INDIANA retain this benefit!!! Thank you